

Learn about getting college costs under control

at The Apostolic Fellowship Church in Bloomfield on February 9th

Many families are struggling to make wise decisions about college within the context of their own financial situations. They are trying to foresee and avoid making mistakes that can unintentionally saddle them with thousands of dollars of educational debt.

Achieving Financial Security: A Community Forum is an event led by a blue-ribbon panel of enormously experienced and wise experts who will present and answer questions about important issues for you and your family, such as:

- How can I identify the college that is the right fit for my child?
- How can I make the college application process less stressful and emotional?
- How can the family evaluate an emotional college decision within the context of wise financial planning?
- How can I foresee and avoid the decisions that lead to thousands of dollars of educational debt?
- What are the behind-the-scenes factors that determine how financial aid actually works?
- What strategies can I use to deal with colleges that can save our family thousands of dollars over time?
- How can grandparents best help their grandchildren to pay for college?
- Is there a way for me to pay for any college my child wants to attend?
- Is there a problem living and paying off a big student loan?

Saturday, February 9, 2019

8:00 am-12:00 noon

Registration ..... 8:00 am-8:30 am

Formal program ..... 8:30 am-10:30 am

Q&A and closing..... 11:00 am-12:00 pm

---

To Register

To register for this extremely relevant and timely Forum, contact Jenny Levinson email: jlevinson@afc-ct.com or register online at: www.societyoffsp.org/afs.

---

Hosted By

Apostolic Fellowship Church
1153 Blue Hills Avenue
Bloomfield, CT 06002
and the
Hartford Chapter of the Society of FSP

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC